Description

Pressalit PLUS shower head holder for vertical handrail.

The shape of the shower head holder and the locking system facilitate height adjustment - even for weak hands.

Thanks to the click system, the angle of the hand shower - and thereby the stream of water - can easily be adjusted as desired.

Mounted on a vertical handrail measuring 1000mm in length, the shower head holder is suitable for both seated and standing users. At the same time, the rail provides support in the shower.
