Description

Pressalit Ergosit 50mm raised height toilet seat with cover has a large, wide seated surface with good support, the 50mm raised height makes it less difficult to sit down and stand up

The seat is well suited to "large" adults with digestive problems. The users bowels are stimulated by the seats contoured surface that press on the thigh muscles and nerves.

The grooves at the rear of the seat, prevent adhesion to the seat.

Key benefits:

- An inexpensive adaptation to a toilet which changes the height
- 50mm raised toilet seat, with stabilising buffers prevent lateral movement
- Specially contoured large surface seat that helps to stimulate the user's bowels, ideal for those with digestive problems
- Seat lid included
